

MOROCCO ADOPTIONS

This is a program of the Government of Morocco.

The Parents

- Must be residents of British Columbia.
- The Adoptive parents must be practising Muslims to adopt from Morocco and provide proof of faith.
- Adoptive parents must be at least 25 years of age. There is no age limit.
- Adoptive parents must be married, or a single woman.
- Morocco does not recognize same sex marriages or common law relationships.
- There is no limit to how many children the adoptive parents have in the home.
- At least one adoptive parent must be a permanent resident of Canada.
- Applicants should have at least an average income and be financially secure including employment.
- Must be in good mental and physical health and capable of caring for an adopted child. Evidence of health must also be obtained from a doctor practising in Morocco.
- Not currently using cannabis.

The Children

- Children between 1 – 8 years may be adopted. The typical age of children proposed to families is under 1 year.
 - The children are typically from baby homes and are abandoned at birth.
-